

FOCUS National Conference 2013 FAQs

Q: How does the payment work for this special registration?

A: Any student who registers during this time will receive the “Talks and T-shirt” special: a conference t-shirt and set of conference talks for free ($40 value)! All we need is a $100 deposit before May 15th– with the rest of the registration cost due by Oct 31st, 2012 to receive that lowest pricing option.

Q: What is included in the cost of registration?

A: Your conference registration includes four nights and five days at an award winning resort, lunches, entrance to all conference sessions which national speakers and top rated entertainment. Your registration will also give you access to the FOCUS National Conference App and for a limited time only, a conference t-shirt and set of conference talks for free ($40 value).

Q: How are roommates assigned?

A: If you attend a FOCUS campus, a roommate list will be generated by your campus’ missionaries; please see them for roommate requests, but note that we cannot guarantee these requests. All other attendees will be placed in rooms according to their university (if applicable) or at random.

Q: Am I able to fundraise to cover the cost of FOCUS Conference?

A: Every student who registers for Conference will have the opportunity to fundraise the cost of their registration fee as well as the cost of transportation, food, and any spending money associated with the conference. Contact the missionaries on your campus for more information or contact conference@focusonline.org if you’re not from a FOCUS school.

Q: Does registration include meals?

A: Yes, three meal per registration (except for the family registration, which includes two meals, one for each person). Please note that children passes for those 12 and under and commuter passes do not include meals.
